School History- A.P.V. Balika Vidyalaya Junior High School, Pandu Nagar, Kanpur

Ath Parbati Vansh Lal Balika Vidyalaya Junior High School, Pandu Nagar, Kanpur, was established in 1968 with the noble vision of promoting the all-round development of students. The school has always been committed to providing quality education with a strong foundation in moral and cultural values.

The school was founded by Acharya Sukh Narayan Shastri Ji, a dedicated educationist and social reformer, whose mission was to empower children through education. He believed in creating a nurturing and disciplined environment where students could learn, grow, and become confident citizens.

Since 1968, the school has continuously progressed in its mission. It received recognition as a Junior High School in accordance with educational regulations and currently runs classes from 1 to 8. Over the years, the school has earned a reputation for academic excellence, character development, and holistic education.

The school follows the CCE (Continuous and Comprehensive Evaluation) pattern to monitor student progress across academic and co-scholastic areas. Emphasis is placed on skill development, creativity, participation, and overall personality growth.

In alignment with National Educational goals, the school is actively making efforts to obtain affiliation with the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE). The institution has upgraded its infrastructure, academic practices, and administrative systems to meet CBSE standards with name of A.P.V EDUCATION CENTRE and to provide a progressive, child-centered learning environment.

With the unwavering support of its experienced staff and responsible management, the school continues to uphold its founding values and work towards the educational and personal development of every student. The school stands as a testament to decades of dedication, service, and the pursuit of educational excellence for the children.
